- ✿ All 135 of these men fought for their country through the horrors of this war and deserve to be always remembered.
- ✿ Those who died were a tragic loss to their families and the Bathford community

Arthur Marshall is listed under the Royal Navy but the CWGC entry gives him as a Captain in the 34th Brigade of the Royal Garrison Artillery.

We don't know who compiled the Book of Remembrance, nor where the names on the War Memorial came from. So all names should be remembered.

For more details on the men listed on the war memorial see: "Bathford Men on WW1 Memorial.pdf". Also on www.bathfordsociety.org.uk.
