

Scubed at St Swithuns Summer 2017

Village News: The Summer fete was another great success collecting over £4 for village funds along with 8 inches of rain-water in 24 minutes. The crowd at its height was estimated to be somewhere in the region of six and the winner of the unusual pet competition was Rev Sally Buddle with a tin of salmon. Michael Craine was questioned by police following the disappearance of rhubarb from the produce stall and was remanded in custody but was later released with charge. He declined to comment on accusations that the whole event had simply been an attempt to promote the forthcoming program of the Happin youth work at St Swithuns. It has been seen four of Bath's youngest Youff balanced program for the summer, an element by which a sense preclud a discussion and there is a link both aspe

Scubed is for young people in Year 7 and beyond.

We aim to meet on Saturday and Sunday evenings to enjoy a good laugh, silly games, socials, events and explore and celebrate what it means to become a Christian and live the Christian faith.

The young and cool people that try to run Scubed can best be described as:
