Adventures of the Wise Men with Humphrey the Camel, will take place on Friday 19th January from 5.30 - 7pm. This event will feature an assault course, games, crafts, fun bible stories, songs, reflective space and live star gazing along with hot food and drinks.

All ages welcome, free entry.

Film Club will be meeting on Monday 22nd January at 2pm. Dunkirk (40,000 men couldn't get home, so home came for them) will be shown.

Victoria & Albert release date has been delayed and will be screened as soon as it is released.

United Services the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity will take place at 3pm on Sunday 21st January at St. John's Batheaston. This year's service and theme has been produced by the Churches of the Caribbean.

We seek to:

Grow deeper in our Christian Faith

Care for each other

Serve the community

Share the Good News of Jesus locally and beyond

Bath Food Bank are looking for somebody to take up the voluntary role of 'Supply and Supermarket Coordinator'. For more information, please contact Tim Harris, Chairman of the Management Committee, at tharris.bathfb@gmail.com who will send further details including a full job description.

Holy Trinity Combe Down have received funding from St John's to support a post at St Andrew's Community Church for a Community Outreach Worker and Church Centre Manager. It's a great post and for 20 hours a week. The job description and application form are at the foot of HTCD website home page - <http://www.htcd.church/>. Closing date is 15th January 2018.

Genesis Centre on Walcot Street would like to thank those who generously donated to their Next Step Appeal. The money will give some of Bath's most disadvantaged people the chance to move towards independence and employment. An update on progress to redevelop the Genesis centre is available at www.genesistrust.org.uk

Holy Trinity Combe Down Women's Group have organised a weekend retreat to take place at Amerdown on the 24-25 March 2018 and would love to welcome groups from other Bath Churches.
